

Illustration Essay Outline Template

Introduction

- Hook - Begin with an attention grabber: a short story, example, statistic, quote or historical context that introduces the paper topic.
- Background Information- Provide key information the audience may need to fully understand the concept being illustrated in the essay.
- Thesis Statement - The introduction must end with a THESIS statement (a 1 to 2 sentences in length):
  - Tell what the overall paper will focus on
  - Briefly outline the main points in the paper

Body

Body Paragraph 1

- Topic Sentence - This sentence identifies the topic of the paragraph and how it relates to the thesis statement; should be your first main point.
- Explain and Exemplify -You need to provide many examples to illustrate your points. Give strong examples, details, and explanations to support each main points.
- Concluding sentence - This sentence wraps up the paragraph and transitions the reader to the next idea in the following paragraph.

The advertisement features a blue background. On the left, there is an illustration of a woman with dark hair, wearing a pink shirt and green pants, sitting on a large laptop. She is holding a laptop and pointing upwards. To her right is a large document with text and pink highlights. In the bottom left corner of the illustration is a small graduation cap icon. In the center, there is a gold circle containing the text 'A+'. To the right of the illustration, the text reads: 'Get Professional Essay Help to Save Your Time for only $12'. Below this, it says: 'Connect with our top writers and receive a well-written essay according to your specifications.' At the bottom right, there is a gold button with the text 'Place Your Order'.

Body Paragraph 2

- Topic Sentence - This sentence identifies the topic of the paragraph and how it relates to the thesis statement; should be your second main point.

- Explain and Exemplify -You need to provide many examples to illustrate your points.Give strong examples, details, and explanations to support each main points.
- Concluding sentence - This sentence wraps up the paragraph and transitions the reader to the next idea in the following paragraph.

Body Paragraph 3

- Topic Sentence - This sentence identifies the topic of the paragraph and how it relates to the thesis statement;should be your third main point.
- Explain and Exemplify -You need to provide many examples to illustrate your points.Give strong examples, details, and explanations to support each main points.
- Concluding sentence - This sentence wraps up the paragraph and transitions the reader to the next idea in the following paragraph.

Conclusion

- Reiterate the main points within each body paragraph and prove to the reader that you proved your argument.
- Should not introduce any new information; focus only on what's already been presented as evidence in the essay.